

FOOTSTEPS in FAITH

5K RACE & 1 MILE FUN WALK

Saturday, August 20, 2011

Race Registration 7:00-8:00 am * Race 9:00 am Start

This is our 2nd Annual Footsteps in Faith Race. Genre and his family chose this name because that's what this cancer journey has been, and now Footsteps in Faith also sets the tone for the path Genre's Kids with Cancer will follow.

Genre's Kids with Cancer Fund is named after Genre Baker, who was 8 years old when he was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). Genre (like Henry, with a G) is the 10 year old son of John and Daunette Baker. He was diagnosed with ALL on Memorial Day of 2009. During Genre's first two weeks in the hospital, he relied heavily upon his Nintendo DS to entertain him and to allow him to escape the insanity that had become his world. He told his parents he "didn't know what a kid without a DS would do for two weeks in the hospital", and said he wished that he had enough money to make sure that every kid diagnosed with leukemia had a handheld video game. In one year, Genre spent 67 days in the hospital, in addition to weekly chemotherapy treatments at the clinic. He will continue receiving treatment until September 2012. Genre's charitable ideas continued to grow and led us to form Genre's Kids with Cancer Fund dedicated to:

- ◆ Providing a handheld video game with two game cartridges, mp3 player, or Leapster to each child newly diagnosed with cancer at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh.
- ◆ Giving each oncology family a "go bag" filled with items and necessary toiletries that can be used during lengthy hospitalization stays.
- ◆ Organizing free golf lessons around the greater Pittsburgh area for kids undergoing chemotherapy at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh.
- ◆ Offering quality free photography for oncology patients in treatment at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh.
- ◆ Providing financial assistance to oncology families, based on immediate and individual family needs.

Money raised at this event will help Genre's Kids with Cancer Fund accomplish our mission of helping families living through childhood cancer — emotionally, financially, and spiritually.
